iii. Caveat:

Should Herr Doktor Nidal release another "chimera" memetic sequence, i.e.; a thought virus that has been memetically altered to take on various aspects of other thought viruses, the majority of the online population would be defenseless.

"... but long time after the dead bodies were found, and some Vessels which they had carried with them, and the Vessels full of Water; and that water thicker, and more towards Ice, than common Water; which is a notable instance of Condensation and Indurations by Burial under Earth (in Caves) for long time; and a version also (as it should seem) of Air into Water; if any of those Vessels were empty."

Given these memetic strains 30 per cent paradigm destruction ratio, nearly 2 billion sub-humans could become infected through a single exposure.

"It is reported also credibly, that Wool new shorn, being laid carefully upon a Vessel of Verjuice, after some time hath drunk upon a great part of the Verjuice, though the Vessel were whole without any flaw, and had not the Bung-hole open. In this instance there is (upon the by) to be noted, the Percolation or Suing of the Verjuice through the Wood; for Verjuice of it self would never have passed through the Wood: So it seemeth, it must be first in a kind of Vapor before it pass."

-Sir Francis Bacon, Sylva Sylvarum, 1676; excerpts from
"Of Turning Air into Water"

iv. Online Sarcophagi

We can build our own Online Sarcophagi.

We know that these Wanderings in the Waste are made solid by Effluvia Enriched OV(tm), siphoned off of Hot-Vessel Cadaver Wannabes(tm) by Puppet Master Sorcerers, just as water is siphoned off to create an oasis.

Such an oasis lasts only so long as the water lasts, and the technology for its diversion.

However, a Circular River that is self-sustaining, recreated by the inhabitants, does not need such an external OV(tm) Reservoir for replenishment.

Infek-Ren Sekem Khu

In post-mortem mythology Infek-Ren Sekem Khu is a fierce entity that guards the entrance to the Underworld, permitting admittance to all and escape to none. He is known for carrying a straight razor that "glows white-hot like a slice of feral-light". He is the director of the entertainment episode of your life.

He is the Cyclopean prototype of the furies, with a howling, voracious throat that gulps down untold quantities of Astral Effluvia. He has become the funerary embodiment of the appetite for Strange Drugs, Serial Violence and Forbidden Sexuality and as such flays and mangles the personas who reduced their role to a denial of such appetites.

Heralding the Forty Ninth Jubilee of the Latter Day, he appears as a Transdimensional Arachnid; a pre-figuration of the Beast and thus represents the primal formulae of the unity of Shugal-Choronzon.

This hybrid concept underlies all relations between Working Sex Magickians and the Hot-Vessel Cadaver(tm), since only a Homunculus partaking of both Working Sex Magickian and Hot-Vessel Cadaver(tm) can mediate between two sub-species. These are blueprint sexual appliances, potentials rather than actual separate beings, capable of attaining some degree of contelligence.

"And I will turn my blowtorch upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, and scorch away all thy OV(tm)."

According to Latter Day Satanic doctrine no episode outside of C.O.L.D.S. and F.L.U. (i.e. without baptism of the first Lysergic Sacrament and thus the gateway to www.deathandhell.com) will go into reruns. These subscribers suspended in Limbo, the first exposure to Unit 731, were online wandering personas who had no prior knowledge of infek bin Laden and His F.A.T.W.A. (through no fault of their own since they were merely props) or who, after His Becoming were flamed to virtual ashes while being subjected to the Public Anal Necro-Rape Procedure.

Here physical torment is absent; these subscribers suffer only the mental anguish for now cognizant of the Archetypal Theriomorph they have to 'live in a lesser simulation without any hope of beholding Him or receiving sigilized drug packets'.

Sub-humans have also been targeted for "transformation" by lycanthropic paramilitary units using very sophisticated memetic warfare systems, hybridized tectonics with a subliminal interface and have set up these events beyond space-time referred to as:

"Temple Dahmer Initiations."

Corresponding Paraphilia:
Fetishism

Use of nonliving objects for sexual arousal,

Temple Dahmer Protocol for Protection from Airborne Pathogens and Biohazards:

Consider wearing a disposable mask while in Temple Dahmer Ritual Sacrifice scenarios where bloodborne communicable diseases such as Hepatitis and HIV are present.

It has, moreover, been proven that Satanic Visions of horror, obscenity, and overwhelming fear are what give pleasure when one performs the Anal Necro-Rape sequence.

Real Time Rigor Mortis

The process of Rigor Mortis is the result of stiffening or contraction of the body muscles related to bio-electric changes occurring within the neuro-twitch fiber during the Anal Necro-Rape Procedure.

Rigor Mortis begins 2 to 4 hours after the moment of sacrifice but now that gap has been eliminated to provide a seamless interface between virtual rekills and throwaway time.

Ritual Homicide has never been this easy.

Here's where the real fun begins.

Contrary to popular belief, Rigor Mortis starts at same moment throughout the entire vessel; however, it is first observed in the jaws and neck. This process has been utilized by Death and Hell to formulate the ultimate post-mortem blow job !

Each Hot-Vessel Cadaver(tm) comes equipped with state-of-the-art Temple Dahmer Flex-Mort(tm) . Depending on the length and intensity of the kill scene and OV(tm) extraction it is usually complete in 8 to 12 hours after the onset of the Anal Necro-Rape Procedure. Throughout this stage, the jaws, neck, torso, and upper and lower extremities are literally "stiff as a board" and, in this marked state of stiffening, resist any change in position.

Fully Adjustable

Flex Mort(tm)

Superior Ergonomics

Flex-Morte(tm) comes equipped with Rigor 4.0 and "fixes" the vessel in the position assumed at the moment you decide to flip the switch on the neural processor.

I had one particular case where the carcass of a young HVC who had been brutally disemboweled became literally "frozen" in the position of the Anal Necro-Rape Asana. A cadaver bent over and spread at death will remain in that position, with arms and legs fixed in the position of the Anal Necro-Raped vessel, even after the sensual thrill of Necrophilic Excavation.

This complete Rigor begins to disappear about 18 to 36 hours after initiation of the Anal Necro-Rape procedure and, in the average HVC, is eliminated within 48 to 60 hours, leaving the vessel pliant and cadaver-fresh for the next Working Sex Magickian.

Temple Dahmer Protocol for Protection from Airborne Pathogens and Biohazards:

Wear eye protection and disposable infections disease gown to protect clothing when exposed to large amounts of OV(tm).

A word of caution: this paraphilia is the poorest of the gauges used in estimating time to initiate Necrophilic Excavation because of the many variables involved.

Cadaveric Spasm

Under certain conditions the stiffening of the hands or arms may take place immediately at the moment of Anal Necro-Rape. This is known as Cadaveric Spasm, and is often confused with Rigor Mortis. It is not uncommon for Vessels wearing a Penis-Gag or with a Cock shoved down their throat or newly created orifice during the Anal Necro-Rape Procedure, to clutch it tightly in their mouth or other orifice throughout the subsequent embalming process.

Postmortem Lividity

Also known as Livor Mortis, this is caused by the pooling and unsettling of OV(tm) within the coolant system from the effect of gravity. It appears as a purple discoloration of the flesh. During "life", the pumping action of the artificial heart maintains a constant flow of OV(tm) through the numerous tubes throughout of the vessel. Upon initiation of the Anal Necro-Rape procedure, this pumping action ceases, and the OV(tm) pools within the dependent portions of the carcass.

The location of Livor Mortis is determined by the position of the Hot-Vessel during the Anal Necro-Rape procedure.

Temple Dahmer Protocol for Protection from Airborne Pathogens and
Biohazards:

After the Necrophilic Excavation Procedure is completed dispose of asbestos gloves, masks, and robes contaminated by OV(tm) in a biohazard bag and wash hands carefully with an antiseptic hand rinse.

In our efforts to de-sub-humanize the SEXUAL APPLIANCE to even greater thresholds of obedience and servitude, we must strive to subjugate the vessel by every means available. In previous models this had been accomplished as easily as an electric collar being removed and replaced with a more "sophisticated" Razor-Ribbon Choker(tm) that cuts under its chin at the throat, forcing its head to remain slightly elevated.

Other times Orifice resizing and permanent clamps and hooks may require instillation.

Today's Working Sex Magickian demands servitude and OV(tm) production with holes to do with as he pleases and property to be disposed of when it is no longer desired.

"Don't you EVER deny me entry to any of your holes, whore. Now, open!"

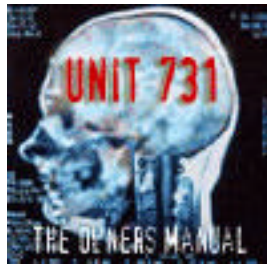

Death and Hell has proven time and time again that the intimacy exchange between Working Sex Magickians and their artificial companions transcends any previously known level of species interaction. At Death and Hell we foster the total freedom and mastery of a homicide-positive environment to do everything within our vast power to create an atmosphere that is not just indifferent to sub-human suffering, but which

ENCOURAGES IT.

So when it comes time to disposing of these vessels and the Working Sex Magickian is absorbed in the dichotomy of the Madonna Whore/Corpse complex he needs a throwaway vessel that is self-compacting and disposable with minimal spillage, stain-free OV(tm) and finally a quick bio-degradable waste product that completely bypasses those cost-prohibitive Midnight Haz-Mat Disposals.

Decades of Latter Day Satanic clandestine research into the sub-human mind manipulation have finally achieved the unthinkable. There now exists a technology that can enable any sub-human brain to be unknowingly controlled from a distance.

P.M.S.

SCENE V

The Wrathful

Corresponding Paraphilia:

Sexual Sadism

The infliction of physical or psychological pain on a member of a sub-species in order to achieve sexual excitement.

(Considered Mandatory for the Grade of Working Sex Magickian)

Temple Dahmer Protocol for Protection from Airborne Pathogens and Biohazards:

Dispose of contaminated supplies as recommended in this protocol.

"Nidal found that sub-human subjects exposed to 1310 MHz and 2982 MHz microwaves at average power densities of 0.4 to 2 mW/cm² perceived auditory sensations described as buzzing or knocking sounds. The sensation occurred instantaneously at average incident power densities well below that necessary for known biological damage and appeared to originate from within or near the back of the skull."

"The Spider Loa have made Theriomorphosis a prerequisite for immortality. Why, exactly? Obviously the online sarcophagi serve as receptacles to collect and store the Effluvia of the HVCWs needed to preserve their owners. In return, the online vortex is given conditional immortality, while HVCWs are to be milked like aphids."

In 2001, researchers at F.L.U. stated that "one of the most widely observed and accepted biologic effects of low average power electromagnetic energy is the auditory sensation evoked in HVCs when exposed to pulsed microwaves."

An acoustic stress wave is then conducted through the skull to the cochlea, and from there, it proceeds in the same manner as in conventional hearing. It is obvious that receiver-less radio has not been adequately publicized or explained because of conflicts of interest with competing Entertainment Covens.

Today, the ability to remotely transmit microwave voices inside a HVCWs head is known inside Temple Dahmer as "Synthetic Telepathy." According to Dr. JiHadit abu Nidal, "Synthetic Telepathy has applications in covert operations designed to drive a HVCW insane with voices or deliver undetected instructions to a programmed Fuck Implement."

The question remains though who would to do such a thing, and why?

Man-Boy Ken(tm), who claims it has been harassed by mind control activities, is certain that its tormenters are simply "n'er-do-wells" who have enough money to buy easily produced mind control technology. Nidal's theory might not be so far-fetched. Just about any Temple Dahmer Dungeon and Deli Compound will have at least one, if not more, advertisement selling franchises for do-it-yourself "mind control" operations.

Even if such events are not random acts of violence, and even if these sub-humans are being mentally controlled by an outside source, the question is still, why? A list-terrorist campaign is successful only if those subscribers being terrorized know their attackers. So far, these Latter Day Mind Controllers have not stepped forward to make their demands known. Because of this, the chilling scenario that we are in the midst of a larger goal of the Sex Magick Industry bent on the eventual control and containment of the sub-species of the Anal Necro-Rape Camp Earth Show might be plausible.

The term "Lotus Cloud" has been coined to describe the bloody disintegration of HVCs at the final stage of Necrophilic Excavation, when their organs have been liquefied and the hemorrhaging becomes a sanguine flood. It is a gruesome and extraordinarily erotic spectacle.

The Roses won't tell your secrets

SCENE VI

Arch-Heretics/Infidels

Sexual Masochism

Receiving pleasure from being humiliated, bound, beaten, flamed on divers e-lists or otherwise made to suffer for sexual arousal (Considered a chronic disorder. Standard equipment on every HVCW)

Temple Dahmer Protocol for Protection from Airborne Pathogens and Biohazards:

Avoid unnecessary contact with imitation synthetic OV(tm).

In the case of the Middle English word rapen, taken from Latin rapere, fewer senses existed, but some of them were quite similar to many forms in which we would use the word in today's Temple Dungeon environment. It could mean "to fix or set a certain time" ("The tyme he wild [would] not rape") or "to carry off somebody to heaven from earth" ("the visions of seynt poul wan [when] he was rapt in to paradys"). The past participle rapt has survived in Modern English, where it has become a separate word referring to states of deep delight or absorption, further removing the taint of sensory depravity from the whining Anal Necro-Rape "victim".

Hence, through the Great Liberation Vehicle of Anal Necro-Rape any instrument of use or service may be either elevated or degraded, with sensory apparatus wired and stretched taut beyond the imaginal realms of Heaven or Hell at the merest whim of the Working Sex Magickian.

Joy Tool,
Pleasure Instrument,
Fuck Implement,
Toilet Utensil,
Sexual Appliance.

All these terms refer to sub-human devices used in the performance of service for the Working Sex Magickian. Here Joy Tool(tm) applies broadly to an electrodildonic device that facilitates pleasure for the Working Sex Magickian. Specifically it denotes a small manually/thought operated device, such as a Klaus Barbie Doll(tm), of the kind employed by Working Sex Magickians which may include a brothel full of Auto-Houris(tm) with external fluid reservoirs for repair jobs (pending availability in your area).

A Pleasure Instrument(tm) refers especially to one of the relatively small precision Joy Tools, such as a Speculoscope(tm) [comes with a Supersonic Rimjob Attachment(tm)]. When used by well trained and highly skilled Working Sex Magickians, even in such procedures where the brachial-shunt remains unobstructed, may result in many cases where the Working Sex Magickian will choose to simply sterilize all the Fuck Implements and abort the entire procedure.

RESET

Fuck Implement is the preferred term for Joy Tools used in Satanic Prostitution and OV(tm) extraction and storage trades with Fakes, Ho's, and other Fuck Implements. Toilet Utensil often refers to a Fuck Implement, such as a HVCW, used in doing household work. These Toilet Utensils are best observed when splayed open on the restroom floor. Sexual Appliance most frequently denotes a power-driven device, such as a Hot-Vessel Cadaver(tm), or an Oedipal Runt(tm) that performs a specific function: a website selling post-modern sexual appliances.

HOMUNCULUS RUN AMOK?

On Monday, February 27, 2001, a Working Sex Magickian performing a routine Necrophilic Excavation in a Temple Dahmer Dungeon and Deli Complex in a sector near Seattle, the capital of the Latter Day Nation-State of Satanica, found and extracted a strange-looking artifact.

Satanica is the planet's first Satanic-Bloc Nation State stretching from the Mountains of Southwestern Oregon, up the Pacific Coast to the Queen Charlotte Islands.

The O.O.P.S.A. (Out-Of-Place-Sexual Appliance) was described as a "small android," an "alien sexual appliance" and a "sex toy from the future".

According to Herr Dr. Nidal, the Chaotaliban's correspondent in Satanica, the object was described as "an artifact like a sex-doll, of sub-humanoid form about 10 to 15 centimeters" (4 to 6 inches) in length. The unusual sex-doll "was translucent and changed color from blue to red" as the Working Sex Magickian touched it with his

Sacrificial Diamond Laser

"Juju doll Meester?

The color changes happened repeatedly as the object was sacrificed in differing positions. Also, they detected on the skin an indigo liquid like transpiration. Chaotaliban Pirate Media, (Channel) 718 in Satanica showed video footage of the unusual homunculus in its evening news broadcast. The footage showed the remains of the Hot-Vessel Cadaver(tm) where the "weird doll" was found and an interview with the Working Sex Magickian who performed the extraction. Satanica Commandante Policia Militar, infek bin Laden, reportedly took custody of the "magick sex-doll", which has "which is now being studied by specialists at Temple Dahmer.

Temple Dahmer Protocol for Protection from Airborne Pathogens and Biohazards:

Avoid Ingestion of Flesh from Previously Uncooked Sub-Human Vessels

The Emancipated Underage HVCW

The hormonal changes responsible for early puberty in Live Human Vessels are the same ones that normally trigger puberty around age of 11 and 12 in the Emancipated Underage HVCW. The brain starts to secrete a hormone called luteinizing hormone-releasing hormone (LHRH) in periodic bursts, which causes the pituitary gland to time release synthetic hormones called tetra-gonadotropins.

These hormones, in turn, stimulate the gonads (ovaries and testes) to make sex hormones. The sex hormones, particularly estrogen in the Klaus Barbie Doll(tm) and testosterone in the Man-Boy Ken(tm), can be manipulated to hasten sexual maturation.

By injecting our Hot-Vessel Cadaver Fetus with LHRH we have been able to trigger puberty in the HVC while literally still in the aqueous vats. Imagine the excitement when your very own HVC gives birth to a fully sexually mature Hot-Vessel Cadaver(tm).

Just wash it off, apply makeup and it's ready for hours of

HOT ACTION !!

Precocious Pre-Pubescent Party-Doll(tm)

Sex hormones also change the Vessels growth pattern. Before puberty, a Hot-Vessel Cadaver(tm) appliance usually grows at a steady rate, adding about 2-3 inches a month to its height. Upon reaching puberty, the Hot-Vessel Cadaver(tm) undergoes a growth spurt. During this period, it grows an average of 4-6 inches per year and increases OV(tm) production until the point of diminishing returns where these models are recalled from active service.

While genetically engineered sex hormones accelerate growth in the adolescent appliance, they also speed up the process that ends growth. Under the influence of these bio-engineered hormones, the Skeletech(tm) frame is designed to mature very rapidly until, at the end of puberty- usually around age 14 corresponding with the warranty expiration. The growth centers at the ends of the titanium alloy frame self-seal and the HVC does not grow any taller except by

SPECIAL ORDER

HVCs who start puberty prematurely are tall for their age, because of the growth spurt triggered by time released synthetic sex hormones. But since their titanium skeleton is designed to accommodate maturation and reconstitutes at a much earlier than "normal" age, they never achieve their full height potential as Sexual Appliances.

The Man-Boy Ken(tm) often grows no taller than 4'2", and half of the HVCs never exceed four feet.

ii. The Clone Ranger Rides Again

The Latter Day Satanists, when sacrificing children, cattle and other animals, along with blood, take only lips, rectum, tongue, and genitals, because the skin of these tissues has a porous mucous-membrane surface, with secretions of use to them. Being unable to eat in the normal way, instead deriving nutrition through the skin, they bathe in a mixture made from these, along with blood. These are only a few of the traits that Working Sex Magickians share with the Zeta Reticulans.

The Clone Ranger Rides Again

It was nearly 2:30 a.m. when officer Stanley Greer received the first call. A distraught cattle rancher from a small working ranch twenty miles past Alamogordo on Highway 156 had discovered what was becoming increasingly common: The death of several prize cattle by what would appear be a case of "bovine excision". Lips, sphincter and tongue... removed precisely as if by surgical incision.

All moral principles are obstacles to be overcome. Happiness lies only in that which excites, and the only thing that excites is Anal Necro-Rape.

Two deputies arrived on the scene to confront a confused and angry cattle rancher. Two hundred and eighty five miles away near the outskirts of Tempe, Arizona two homeless men camping in the desert witness what appears to be an "Oscar Meyer Weiner" Truck descending from a glowing cloud in night sky.

The truck lands on the highway and begins driving north towards Phoenix.

Supplication is only granted through the senses, and Anal Necro-Rape while high on LSD gratifies all of them.

Some time after the initiation of the Anal Necro-Rape Procedure, a lot of internal organisms in the intestine will become very active. Escherichia coli and others will start multiplying, and the decomposition begins. There has been some talk in certain circles of occulture alluding to the possibility that the Working Sex Magickian doesn't actually crave rotting flesh at all... perhaps he just loves certain species of bacteria and nematodes and that all the flesh stuff probably just gets in the way... Furthermore it has been suggested that the Working Sex Magickian actually craves pure bacteria and enzymes. Others wonder if the average fecal sample doesn't consist of such bacteria and enzymes largely of said combination?

First the intestine and the blood will be attacked, and when gas formation and other things leads to rupture of the intestine other organs will be attacked and after these are eliminated gravesites will be desecrated.

Organs starts decomposing at different times after death, and may also be used in estimating warranty expiration if the tags have been removed or tampered with.

"Generally speaking,
the Tao
of the Superior Working Sex Magickian is the ecstatic conquering of Death and Hell."

You can tell how powerful a Working Sex Magickian is by how many HVCWs they eliminate themselves.

By standing in awe of the many units of the HIVE Mind coded into the infernal template, self-realized Working Sex Magickian understands why our star is a circuit which shuts out direct input and output messages emanating from the AKASHIC recorder cell, for the H.I.V.E. Mind is more a host to the linear reality of one incarnation cycle. The sun as solar reactor, however, shuttles output messages of the higher memory functions of simultaneous Overself programs or previous atavisms which would overload the H.I.V.E. Mind and be destructive to the astral grid.

"My experience with precognition has opened a doorway of potential unlike anything I have seen in the wake of our advancement towards a Viable Telepathic Community.

During my 'mapping' phase where I would leave a mark, a footprint to myself that I was at a certain layer of the dreaming spectrum. This mark was to help navigate me through the non-linear aspects of Temple Dahmer phenomenology.

In one dream, the person in this picture (infek bin Laden) was present. And at a distance of about six feet, he caused a small triangle to appear on my forehead. I repeat, this was done in a dream, furthermore, I was fully awake, conscious and aware that I was dreaming. The thing which made this dream spectacular was not the dream itself, but the fact it occurred on the precognitive layer. Three weeks later, while working as a hooker at the time, on May 13, 2011, the dream simply came true. I finally understood what it meant to be a sub-human vessel in the eyes of the Archetypal Theriomorph."

"Praeterhuman Contact" a Real Possibility
An Interview with Dr.JiHadit abu Nidal
Chaotaliban Network News

1. Chaotaliban: You state that you have successfully established preliminary contact and communication with praeterhuman intelligence at close range. Can you talk about that?

Dr. Nidal: Yes. This is a major theme of my new book, "Attaining Knowledge and Conversation with an Archetypal Theriomorph: The Evidence and Implications." C.O.L.D.S. and F.L.U. has teams which go out all over the hyperdimensional realms establishing contact with these entities in semi-real time.

2. Chaotaliban: How do you establish contact?

Dr. Nidal: We use drugs mainly, DMT combined with MAO inhibitors, electromagnetic systems, high-powered light, and radio signals that we send which have beeping tones on them that have been recorded off of HVC. We transmit these signals into cyberspace as sort of a beacon so the HIVE MIND can pick up exactly where we are in the Necrophilic Excavation Procedure.

Then we remotely vector these shunts into the OV(tm) production site, using thought to construct the effluvia based sarcophagi.

3. Chaotaliban: You use mind control?

Dr. Nidal: I believe that's what these entities are using for communicating through hyperspace because the speed of light is too slow. If your star system is only a thousand light years away, you're going to have some means of communication that bypasses linear space and time.

4. Chaotaliban: Do you train Working Sex Magickians to do this?

Dr. Nidal: Yes.

We take Working Sex Magickians through this program where they can not only remotely view their HVCWs, but they can remotely vector it, showing them where we are and guiding them in to the Anal Necro Asana. On many occasions we've had these HVCWs appear on our remote viewing screens, right above the ground. Sometimes they're phase-shifted so they almost look like a hologram, like a translucent image.

We train Working Sex Magickians all over the world, not for the purpose of giving these OV(tm) Miners and a curiosity Thrill-Kill Seekers show of the universe, but to provide these dedicated researchers and psychonauts the skills to be Latter Day Satanic Ambassadors. In my experience, demons are interested in not only temporarily possessing HVCWs, but in owning and inhabiting them on a permanent basis.

WE ARE READY TO DEAL

iv. Anointed One

It is important for the Working Sex Magickian to do everything possible to choreograph reality into their fantasy. And if one Working Sex Magickian desires to commit sodomy with a Man-Boy Ken(tm) or an Oedipal Runt(tm), he should do so without let or hindrance and without any feeling of sin, as otherwise he would not be Latter Day Satanist in the H.I.V.E. Mind of Zee.

Whilst the fantasies of Anal Necro-Rape - especially cadaverous scenes where there is attraction to those of the same sex - may sometimes be of unique psychological origin, to refuse to actually participate in the act of Necrophilic Excavation is an open door to demonic possession to one degree or another. As is typical of a subject about which there is so much ignorance and superstition, the anal cavity tends either to be totally neglected or blown out of all proportions.

The Vessel's Sphincter was not concentrated into a point at the time of the initial intrusion. But the observable Sphincter was concentrated into a point. The distinction between the whole sphincter and the part of it that we can see is important.

A demon is a memetic sub-routine or obsession designed by the Archetypal Theriomorph containing effluvic remnants of previously enslaved Puppet Servitors. Aside from their numeric and astro-chemical basis these digital qliphothic entities possesses no physical body and cannot, therefore, amongst other things, directly partake in the Joy of Anal Necro-Rape. To do this a demon must enter a sub-human "mind" and literally 'tap' into the thoughts, feelings and physical sensations of its host, rather as a parasite sucks chemicals and life energies.

The degree of demonic 'parasitism' depends on the nature and degree of the repressed paraphilia which has allowed demonic access to the sub-humans tonal in the first place. A demon may only enter a sub-human being if that person disobeys certain commandments of Latter Day Satanism specifically denying those paraphilias that exclude a person from Temple Dahmer festivities such as the All You Can Eat Sunday Buffet or the Jolly Rogers Pre-School Fecal Freak Show. Most demons attempt to influence or tempt a Vessel from the outside by 'whispering' to them. Once inside, they have their hands on many of the controlling mechanisms of its psyche and physical appetites. Once inside, a demon subverts the neural and sensory processes to serve its own ends, whether it is sadistic sexual pleasure or simply the pleasure of keeping that specimen away from the demon's arch-enemy, Marik.

v. Eternal Revenge

As with memetically engineered parasites, there are many types of demon and many types of memetic parasitism. Some memetic parasites live in their hosts without destroying the hosts paradigm; others slowly meta-program and perform alterations on basic belief structure, and the more aggressive types end up killing off the old beliefs rather quickly. This 'killing' may be either ideological or physical, or both. Until endo-demons (demons inside the neural template) are expelled, that specimen can never function properly and may not only find itself misled about fundamentally important matters concerning psychedelic salvation but also be gradually yet repetitively flamed and finally be captured bound and trapped in some object in a Temple Dahmer somewhere.

There are always plenty more hosts for demons to occupy.

It is most unlikely that there is only one demon involved when a vessel has been repressing homosexual fantasies over a long period of time and the Necromemecon speaks in many places of a HVCW being possessed by more than one. The collection of demons known as Legion is well established. This also is of H.I.V.E. MIND. We commune whenever someone has been involved with Serial Violence and/or Forbidden Sexuality and the use of "Strange Drugs" (the three often go hand-in-hand).

Finally, there is another form of Hot-Vessel Cadavery which is called a 'generational HVCW'. This is the inclination to Oedipal antics passed on from an ancestor, recent or distant, who engaged in repressing fantasies of incestuous acts which were never delivered. Other kinds of generational HVCWs include those with a propensity to alcoholism and involvement in herbalism. Generational HVCWs are demon-controlled and can only be broken by an authorized
